WHAT: Trauma Informed Oregon (TIO), is excited to host our 20th community forum! We hope to share what we have been doing & hear what you have learned &/or need. We offer a no-cost training in the morning to increase access to information & follow this with the forum in the afternoon. Please come to one or both – & bring colleagues, families, & community members.

The Morning Training will focus on how organizations can change policies & procedures to promote engagement & retention for both service users & staff using the science of adversity.

8:30am-12:00pm, participants will learn about:

- What trauma-informed care is (& is not)
- The impact of adversity & toxic stress on providing, accessing, & engaging in services
- How service systems, unknowingly, may re-traumatize/activate survivors of complex trauma
- The principles of TIC & examples for implementing into organizational policies & procedures

Afternoon Gathering: TIO will share about current state & national efforts & resources for implementation across sectors. We hope to hear and connect about what is happening, strengths, challenges, & needs in this area.

1:00pm-4:00pm:

- Learn about the OHA Trauma Policy & resources for implementation
- Hear about national & state trauma informed efforts across systems
- Connect with others about your current work, challenges & needs, & share ideas

These events will be facilitated by Mandy Davis, LCSW, Ph.D., Director of Trauma Informed Oregon.

WHO: This free training & the community forum will benefit a broad range of staff & professionals from education, healthcare, housing, child welfare, early childhood, judicial, law enforcement, faith based, systems of care, community & mental health services as well as individuals with lived experience, youth, & family advocates.
